ANNOUNCER: (continued) For the Blue Jay cagers it was a one-point backbreaker at Juniata that knocked them out of two post-season playoff berths. The grapplers on the other hand, completed their season's second half comeback with a triumph at Albirght that put them at .500 on the campaign.

The women's basketball team, having remained idle since their lopsided victory at Lebanon Valley last Monday, will return to action tomorrow (Thursday) at Millersville.

Smarting from the stinging 68-67 defeat at Huntingdon Saturday night, Coach Don Smith's dribblers have been picking up the pieces this week in preparation for their final two games of the season. They were to play Susquehanna at Selinsgrove Wednesday night and will face Lycoming here on Saturday night to end the campaign.

Thus the Jays, who were looking forward to the Middle Atlantic Conference playoffs at Muhlenberg this weekend, lost their second place berth in the Northern Division to Susquehanna. As of Saturday's cutoff date the Jays were 10-3 in the Conference; Susquehanna was 10-2.

Both Fenzyl and Boyer were outstanding performers during their days as collegiate performers here. They are among the five players ever to score at least a thousand points during their court careers for the Blue days.

Music: Rockin' Chair" (record 6-B, cut 8)

ANNOUNCER: Elizabethtown College will initiate this fall a program under which carefully selected students will move directly from their junior year in high school to the freshman year in college.

Fourteen students have been selected to launch the program in September. They were screened from forty original applicants representing thirty-five high schools. Most of the applicants came from the four counties constituting the College's prime service area: Lancaster, Lebanon, York, and Dauphin.

The program is designed to allow qualified students to progress educationally according to their own academic abilities.

A similar drive will be conducted this fall with monies received to be used to aid local students at the College and to help in the continuing development of the campus.

Educators have praised the cooperative program between the local high school and College because it provides an opportunity for advanced students to move ahead academically in the areas of their abilities.

Music: "Cantate Domino" (record 6-B, cut 4)

ANNOUNCER: A new pipe organ has been installed at Elizabethtown College as part of the facilities added to accomodate a major in music education which the college will initiate this fall.

Dr. Carl N. Shull, acting head of the music department, said the organ was purchased primarily for instructional purposes and for student recitals. It was placed in the old campus chapel in Rider Memorial Hall.

To make room for the new organ, two electrical organs were moved to the department's new quarters in West Hall.

The organ is a four rank artiste model with two manuals and a full pedal board. It has a detached console.

ANNOUNCER: (continued) The ECHO campaign (short for Elizabethtown College Help Organization) was initiated last September to raise funds for the College from local business and professional people. A similar drive will be conducted this fall with monies received to be used to aid local students at the College and to help in the continuing development of the campus.

Educators have praised the cooperative program between the local high school and College because it provides an opportunity for advanced students to move ahead academically in the areas of their abilities.

Music: "Cantate Domino" (record 6-B, cut 4)

ANNOUNCER: A new pipe organ has been installed at Elizabethtown College as part of the facilities added to accomodate a major in music education which the college will initiate this fall.

Dr. Carl N. Shull, acting head of the music department, said the organ was purchased primarily for instructional purposes and for student recitals. It was placed in the old campus chapel in Rider Memorial Hall.

To make room for the new organ, two electrical organs were moved to the department's new quarters in West Hall.

The organ is a four rank artiste model with two manuals and a full pedal board. It has a detached console.

ANNOUNCER: (continued) The new major, according to Shull, is framed primarily to prepare students for elementary and secondary teaching positions, in vocal and instrumental music fields.

Included in the new curriculum will be 67 credit hours in music. A total of 128 credit hours, many in general education, will be needed for graduation.

Between 15 and 20 students are expected to enroll as music majors this fall.

Music: "Little David, Play On Your Harp" (record 2-B, cut 4)

ANNOUNCER: This has been the 308th in a series of programs, "From The Elizabethtown College Campus."

Theme: - Alma Mater (fade on signal and hold)

ANNOUNCER: We hope you've enjoyed these selections recorded by the Elizabethtown College choir and that you'll join us next Thursday at 2:45 for more music and news from College Hill. Listen also at this time on Friday for "Men and Molecules." The choir was directed by Professors Nevin W. Fisher and David P. Willoughby. These programs are produced by Elizabethtown College and presented each Thursday at this time as a public service by WEZN. Until next week the students and faculty of Elizabethtown College wish you and yours a very pleasant week.

ANNOUNCER: Chances for a Middle Atlantic Conference soccer title at E-town College this year will hinge primarily on the performances of ten returning lettermen and Coach Owen Wright's ability to mould top flight bench strength from the inexperienced segment of his squad.

On hand to lead the fight for a shot at the title lost last year when the Jays ran second to Rutgers in the Nothern Division because of a tie with Drexel, will be seven backfield veterans and three line holdovers.

Top scorer of a year ago, Al Hershey, and two sophomores, Tony McGlaughlin and Dave Myers return to the line; Seniors Fred Seltzer and Leroy Bear; Juniors Jeff Bensing, Dave Merkel, and Frank Zimmerman; and Sophomores Henry Pownall and Tome Speakman return to the backfield, barring any position shifts by Coach Wright.

The biggest question marks facing Wright as he opens practice this week appear to be two holes in the forward line and the goal cage, vacated by Ray Diener, who signed a professional baseball contract in June.

ANNOUNCER: (continued) In addition to Hershey, the coach's plus column includes Seltzer, who was given an honorable mention rating on the 1961 All-American squad at left fullback; and Pownall, who was given an honorable mention on the MAC's All-Northern Division Team at right halfback.

Last year Wright's crew posted a 7-0-1 mark (Rutgers was 7-0) in MAC competition and an 8-1-1 log overall. A final game 4-0 loss to East Stroudsburg snuffed out the Jays' hopes of entering National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics playoffs for the third consecutive year.

The Jays scored 36 goals to their opponents' nine in the Conference. Over the whole season they had a 39-16 advantage.

Hershey's 11 goals was a team high and his 16 points on eight goals and eight assists.

This season Elizabethtown will play three new teams. Wilkes, an old rival, and Millersville, will replace La Salle and Hofstra on the schedule; and arch-rival West Chester again appears as an opponent after am absence of a few seasons.

Wright's men open the season here on October 6 against Bucknell. The opener will begin at 10 a.m.

ANNOUNCER: Elizabethtown College athletic teams won two and lost one during an active day of sports on the campus, Saturday. Playing before Homecoming crowds that were larger than in previous years, the soccer and field hockey teams racked up victories over East Stroudsburg and Dickinson while the cross country squad was losing to Millersville. All three teams are back in action today and tomorrow.

Coach Owen Wright's booters gained revenge for the 4-0 disaster at Stroudsburg last year by taking the teachers 2-0 Saturday and boosting their season's log 4-1. They face Lycoming at Williamsport today and then look to a showdown with Drexel here Saturday. A win at Lycoming today would make Saturday's clash an all out battle for the Middle Atlantic Conference's northern division title.

The women's field hockey crew posted their third win in six tries on Homecoming Day with a 3-1 triumph over Dickinson. Coupled with a 3-1 loss at Lock Haven last Thursday, the win put the Jaygals of Mrs. Jean Anne Finkbiner at three wins, two losses and one tie. The Gals face Gettysburg here today and then play their regular season's finale at Moravian next Wednesday.

ANNOUNCER: Basketball will be in the sports spotlight tonight when Coach Don Smith's Blue Jay cagers tangle with the Drexel Dragons in the high school gym at 8:30 p.m. A junior varsity game is scheduled at 6:45 p.m.

Both teams will take 7-2 won-lost logs into the Middle Atlantic Conference Battle. The Dragons, however, with a 3-1 conference record are currently riding on top of the Southern Division. The Jays, 5-2 in the conference, are in fifth place in the Northern Division behind Scranton, Moravian, Susquehanna, and Albright.

Drexel will enter the contest on the heels of a triumph over Ursinus Monday night. In the Jays' last encounter Saturday night, they trimmed Wilkes 91-61. Elizabethtown has one more game before the semester break. That one is at Gettysburg Saturday night.

The women's basketball squad won their second of their young season yesterday afternoon when they pounded Muhlenberg, 49-33. They had trounced Moravian in the season's opener last Thursday, 59-18. Miss Allegra Hess' crew has one more game scheduled for January, and that one is to be played here Friday against Shippensburg beginning at 7:15 p.m.

ANNOUNCER: The varsity basketball team continued its drive for a playoff berth in the Middle Atlantic Conference with a 60-64 win over Lebanon Valley at Annville last night. The victory was the Blue Jays' 13th in 16 games played to date and their 12th in 14 conference games. They are now tied for second place in the Northern Division of the MAC with Susquehanna University and can break the tie with a win over Juniata Saturday night. The MAC playoffs will be held at Muhlenberg on March 1 and 2.

Elizabethtown plays Lincoln here tomorrow night and the outcome of that contest may have a bearing on the Jays' chances of playing in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics playoffs, March 8 and 9.

The big guns in last night's win over the Flying Dutchmen were Dan Reitmeyer, Bill Bechtold, and Larry Evans. The trio scored 18, 17, and 16 points, in that order. Jim Schlichter added ten points, and Captain John Neely, 6.

They are designed to bring you music and news from Elizabethtown College, nowmarking 63 years of education for service. Our program opens today as the College Choir sings, "All Men, Now Sing, Rejoice".

Music: - "All Men, Now Sing, Rejoice" Record 4-A, cut 4

ANNOUNCER: Janet K. Jones, a junior French major at Elizabethtown College, has been selected as the College's exchange student for next year, the Student Exchange Committee announced this week.

Miss Jones is the daughter of Mrs. Stella Jones, 23 Adams St., Enola. She will spend the 1963-64 term at Strasbourg University, Strasbourg, France, and will return to Elizabethtown to complete her requirements here during the first semester of the 1964-65 term.

Arrangements are now underway for the admittance of a Strasbourg student at Elizabethtown. That student is tentatively scheduled to arrive in time to begin the new term in September.

ANNOUNCER: (continued) W. Stuart Helm, speaker of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, will speak on "Republicanism in Pennsylvania" at Elizabethtown College Tuesday evening, May 7.

Helm will speak at 7:30 p.m. in the Brinser Lecture Hall of the Gibble Science Building. His appearance is a project of the campus Young Republicans Organization. The public is invited.

Helm, a Republican from Armstrong County, was first elected to the House in 1940 and has served continuously.

First elected to the House of Representatives in 1940, Helm has served on top committees, including Ways and Means and Education. Prior to this year, he was unanimously elected to serve as Speaker of the House during the 1957-58 session. He was chairman of the Republican Policy Committee of the House from 1959 through 1962.

Music: - "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy" Record 4-B, cut 5

ANNOUNCER: Both the baseball and men's tennis teams will be in action today, and both will be out to snap losing streaks. The ball team, which has now lost its last three contests, will be at Collegeville to face Ursinus; the tennis men will take an 0-6 mark into a home match with Lebanon Valley at 3 p.m.

ANNOUNCER: (continued) The women's tennis team, meanwhile, has played only twice and has lost both times. That squad will be back in action tomorrow at Dickinson and over the weekend at the Bryn Mawr Tournament.

Coach Owen Wright's Blue Jay baseball crew has had tough sledding since the Easter break. The Jays worked their record up to 5-3 but then lost consecutive games to Susquehanna, East Stroudsburg, and Drexel. The Drexel defeat was a wild 11-10 extra inning affair Monday. The East Stroudsburg score was 5-4.

Thus the Blue Jays take a 5-6 mark into today's game. After that they go to Scranton for a road game on Saturday. Next Tuesday they'll be at Juniata for a doubleheader.

The men's tennis team has not only been losing to date; it has been losing miserably. Only once have the Jay racketmen scored more than one point in a match. That was against Lycoming here. Dickinson, F & M, and Gettysburg have routed them 8-1 in their last three matches.

Following today's match they will be at Susquehanna Saturday and here against Juniata next Tuesday.

The racketmen capped a late season rush to finish with a 5-8 record as a result of their 9-0 triumph Monday. They lost their first six matches this season but came back gamely to capture five of the last seven.

In women's tennis it was a different story. The Jaygals, also off to a poor start, rallied for two wins in the middle of the season but dropped the last two to end at 2-5. Shippensburg nudged them 4-3 when they were about to hit the .500 mark, and then Penn State sent them lower with a 4-1 decision.

The two last-day victories gave the spring athletes a composite log of 18 victories and 22 defeats. Thus Elizabethtown College athletes in 1962-63 compiled an overall record of 69 wins, 45 losses, and two ties.
